RESIDENCY

California residency is established by a US resident adult who has relinquished prior state residence and is physically present within the state of California for one year with the intent to make California a permanent home. Other factors, however, may affect residency status; see the General Catalog for further information.

Are you or do you expect to be a legal resident of the State of California at the time you begin your graduate studies at Davis?

Yes No

Use this space to list any additional qualifications, which might aid in evaluating your applications: (Attach additional sheet if desired.)

If you are not a citizen of the United States at the time of employment, you will be eligible for employment only if you are (a) an immigrant with an Alien Registration Card, (b) a resident alien with an Alien Registration Card, (c) the holder of an F-1 visa, or (d) the holder of a J-1 visa whose sponsor has approved your employment.

All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, creed, color, religion, marital status, national origin, sex, handicap, or within the limits imposed by law or University regulations, because of age or citizenship.

The University of California, in compliance with Titles VI and VII of the Civil rights Act of 1965, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (45 CRF 86), and Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, or handicap in any of its policies, procedures, or practices; nor does the University, in compliance with the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 and Section 402 of the Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Act of 1974, discriminate against any employees or applicants for employment on the basis of their age or because they are disabled veterans or veterans of the Vietnam era. This nondiscrimination policy covers admission, access, and treatment in University programs and activities, and application for and treatment in University employment.

In conformance with the University policy and pursuant to Executive Orders 11246 and 11375, Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and Section 402 of the Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Act of 1974, the University of California is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer.

Inquiries regarding the University's equal opportunity policies may be directed to the Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs and Affirmative Action Office, 515 Mrak Hall, 752-2070. Speech and hearing impaired may dial 752-6TTY for assistance.

CERTIFICATION: I certify that all the statements made are true, complete and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief and are made in good faith.
